Here are the results of the committee's efforts:

Secretary: Brenda Kildon
Treasurer: Amber Door

Move to accept the slate of officers as presented by acclamation.

I want to thank all members of the committee for their time and input in this process.

Rick Riley, Nominating Chair, reads the Committee's report to the Board and attending members while Larry Baum, Amber Door (new Treasurer) and Renwick Brutus listen on during the November 7th Planning Meeting held at Pietro's in Grand Rapids.

Thanks to Every WMR/PCA Member Who Helped Make Bryan's Wish Come True!

It was wonderful to have the opportunity to thank everyone at the November Meeting! You have all helped to make a very special child's wish come true! Thank you for dinner too – it was delicious!!

Attached you will find a picture of Bryan – he is 14 years old and has Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). He is from Rockford, MI. His wish is to have a BEST BUY shopping adventure and to also get a futon bunk bed with a new bed spread. He would also like to have dinner at Logan's Road House with his Mom, Dad and brother following the shopping adventure. Bryan loves musk football and Harry Potter.

The money raised through your event will help to make Bryan's wish come true. The average cost of a shopping wish is around $4,000.

Thank you again –
as always it is a pleasure working with you!

Best Wishes,

Sarah

C. C.'s Chatter by Candis Collick

If there is one word to describe this time of year — it's par-tay! And while you may have been invited to many a fabulous fete, have you ever thrown one yourself? My personal favorite to plan for is the "Morning After Brunch". That time when everyone gathers back together to commiserate over Bloody Mary's or Mimosa's to share their version of the previous evening's escapades.

If you thought putting together such a feast required a chef and a florist and lots of time, then you haven't been privy to many of the Great White North cooking short-cut tips that make any holiday bash a breeze. I am talking about that whole simple-tricks-that-inspire-awe thing — like cooking your meal in tinfoil on the engine block while you run around shining deer sort of gastronomic feat that inventive, self-reliant Northerners are known for. And who do you think came up with "Hobo Dinners" or S'mores for that matter? Just this summer I introduced my grandkids to the notion of swimming with an ear of corn in each hand in order to get them (the ears of corn) properly hydrated before grilling on the campfire!

So if you are faced with the prospect of preparing a breakfast for holiday visitors here's my cousin's latest tip for preparing omelets: Have guests write their name on a qt-size freezer bag with permanent marker. Crack 2 eggs into the bag (not more than 2). Shake to combine them. Put out a variety of ingredients such as: cheeses, ham, chopped onion, gr. pepper, salsa, etc. Each guest adds the prepared ingredients of choice to their bag and shakes. (make sure to get the air out of the bag and zip it completely shut) Place bags into rolling, boiling water for exactly 13 minutes (keep the water boiling for the entire 13 minutes) You can get 6 to 8 omelet bags in a large pot. Remove bags, open and the omelet will roll right out on to a plate. Be prepared to be amazed!

FOURTH ANNUAL HAGERTY HOBBY SURVEY ONLINE

Enter to Win Two Tickets to Richard Petty Driving Experience

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich. (November 2, 2005) – As part of its commitment and on-going service to collector car owners, Hagerty Collector Network announced its fourth annual Online Hobby Survey Sweepstakes. The survey, available through a link at www.hagerty.com goes live November 8 and continues through November 23. It takes about 12 minutes to complete and covers topics that include collector car usage, driving habits and lifestyle interests.

"We tailor each survey to reflect immediate issues affecting collectors like the current rise in gasoline prices and their subsequent impact on hobbyists' participation in events and overall enjoyment of their car," says McKeel Hagerty, CEO of Hagerty Insurance. "The survey helps quantify the collective experiences of enthusiasts nationwide and gives us a better feel for the concerns and interests of the hobby."

Respondents who complete the survey will be automatically entered in a drawing for a chance to win two tickets to Richard Petty Driving Experience, the "Experience of a Lifetime" option (www.1800bepetty.com) which includes 30 laps at heart-racing speeds on one of the various oval tracks across the U.S. Completing the annual survey helps benefit car collectors and enthusiasts nationwide.

Survey questions range from number and what type of cars hobbyists own, to how they were purchased, financed as well as what type of maintenance they require. By compiling the responses from the more than 10,000 enthusiasts who typically complete the online questionnaire, Hagerty shares the opinions, likes, dislikes, concerns and interests of hobbyists with fellow collectors. The survey is open to anyone who wishes to participate.

Hagerty is the leading insurance agency for collector vehicles and boats in the nation and host to the largest network of collector car owners. Hagerty offers collector car insurance, financing and roadside assistance, as well as a variety of useful information resources. The company works proactively on hobby legislation and supports the Collectors Foundation, a nonprofit organization dedicated to preservation of the hobby. For more information, call 800-922-4050 or visit www.hagerty.com.

A Helpful Column by Donovan J. Kindle

Flatheads for Fun

Do you want to have some real fun next time you go to a Porsche Event? Here's the ticket. Acme Industries of Kissme Florida has introduced an exact replica of the top half of a 1940 Ford Flathead V8 specially built to fit perfectly under your Porsche's deck lid or trunk storage lid—whatever you call it—the thing in the front.

What a gas when you open that puppy up, all proud and everything, and watch your buddy's eyeballs pop out. You won't believe the ensuing provocative nature of the conversation. Cost is $1250.00 — well worth it. That's about 3 tires. It's available at all Authorized Porsche Dealerships.

For an extra $29.95 Acme will throw in a Dale, Jr., big number 8 decal for your back window.

Another nifty product from the geniusae at Acme is the Paris Hilton, Genghis Khan or the Warren Sapp half-dummy for your passenger seat or jump-seat. Just pop one of these inflatable, near-perfect dummies in as your copilot and have some fun. What a hoot. Another real "stunner" for those Preeminent Porsche Pow Wows.

They work equally as well just cruising around town. Just $449.00 will get you all three. And, $989.00 will get you the additional remote digital camera to record the unsuspecting reactions.

The camera can also be redirected to photograph the officer who is writing you a ticket when your "Valentine One" fails. Usually they get all rattled and make some mistake which you can later use in court.

Ask for item numbers 55E3JJF8, 799043DNYE359 and K6681300437501B when ordering these items for yourself or that special someone on your Christmas list.
