President's Report:

Euro Art Gallery and Trading is producing a series of 12 paintings depicting the history of Porsche cars. Each painting will be presented individually and may be viewed live on the internet until the series of 12 is complete. The first painting is 356/1/1948 by Artist: Joachim Lehrer. For each painting, 356 hand-signed, limited-edition prints will be made available. For more information go to:

Our Zone 4 rep., Roy Wilkinson, requested information regarding our upcoming Color Tour.

Arnie has expressed interest to Roy in having the Regional Procedures Manual put on CDROM.

Old Business:

Planning Meeting: November 7th @ Pietro's.

September Dinner Drive – The Daily Grill: Hosted by Rick Riley. Great food/service enjoyed by all 23 participants.

Grattan DE: A successful event, thoroughly enjoyed by all even with the rain on Sunday. 83 cars participated on Saturday. The Grattan Committee will be holding their exit meeting October 6th to discuss this year's event and talk about next year's event. The committee hopes to secure a date in August next year, but if the August date is not available, the event will be held in September.

Nominating Committee: Looking for people interested in any of the board positions.

New Business:

Make a Wish: We have collected $1330.00 in donations and the Board approved raising the amount to $2000.00. Craig A. will present a check to the Make a Wish representative at our Planning Meeting in November.

October Color Tour 10/5: Hosted by Duane & Brenda Weed. Information available on the Web and in the Uber.

November Dinner Drive 11/9: Hosted by Dave Reid. Ichiban Restaurant in Grand Rapids. Information on the Web and in the Uber.

Open Forum:

The Board approved a proposal for the club to purchase last year's Grattan DVD's (9@$10 ea.) for door prize give-a-ways at WinterFest.

Bob Malone may have a photo available for raffle at WinterFest.

Persons interested in facilitating Charity fundraising activities for 2006 should contact Arnie Axelrod.

Meeting adjourned at 7:50PM

Respectfully submitted by Brenda Hildon
